Dear Mr. Grindstaff:

Re: HALPERIN V. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (C.A.#77-1859)

In connection with my deposition of December 19, 1978,
I note the following corrections:

Page 4 - Line 23 omit "into"; add "in under". The corrected line should read: "When people are brought in under contract, it's an"

Page 16 - Line 18 omit ",,"; add "and"; omit "no";
add "on our"; omit "."; add ",, ". The corrected line should read: "Executive Order is issued and it bears on our responsibilities, we"

Page 50 - Line 6 omit "has"; add "was". The corrected line should read: "to carry out, on a confidential basis -- where he was pledged"

Page 51 - Line 14 add "of". The corrected line should read: "public knowledge of its connection, of its interest, or anything"

Page 72 - Line 20 omit "amount", add "issue". The corrected line should read: "an hour, one could logically deduce it must be an issue of"

Page 73 - Line 18 omit "or", add "and". The corrected line should read: "of the applicable appropriation,
and are legal and proper."

Assuming the corrections noted are included with the copies filed with the court, signing of the deposition will be waived.

Sincerely,

John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration
